

2018 Concord Shanghai Bilingual School
High School International Integration Course
(IGCSE/A-level) Recruitment Plan

The 2018 High School recruitment for Shanghai Concord Bilingual School is open to all students from Shanghai and other provinces. The school will provide integrated international courses including IGCSE and A-levels. All qualified students are welcome to apply for our school.

I Enrollment Quota

We will have 2 classes, 15 to 20 students each class according to our 2018 recruitment plan.

II Enrollment Target and Requirements

We are recruiting students of good physical and mental health, with good behavior, good academic performance, good English and strong Independent learning ability, who are finishing their last year of middle school in 2018. We can also accept middle school graduates who fall into the appropriate age groups.

We are recruiting students from Shanghai, other provinces and also foreign passport holders who aim to pursue further studies in foreign universities. The detailed requirements are as follows:

1. Shanghai students must take part in the senior high school entrance examination (Zhongkao), pass the Shanghai Concord Entrance test and meet other admission requirements of Shanghai Concord Bilingual School in 2018.
2. Students from other provinces must take part in the local senior high school entrance examination, provide official transcripts, pass the Shanghai Concord Entrance test and meet other admission requirements of Shanghai Concord Bilingual School in 2018.
3. Foreign passport holders must provide official documents for identity authentication, pass the Shanghai Concord Entrance Test and meet other admission requirements of Shanghai Concord Bilingual School in 2018.

III. Curriculum Introduction Session and Taster Session

In order to let parents and students understand the admission policy and other related circumstances of our school, on May 5th, Shanghai Concord High School will give introductory curriculum sessions to those who apply for Year 10 in 2018. Parents and students will have the opportunity to attend the lecture on our school's philosophy of teaching and learning and an outline of the high school curriculum by our team, they will be able to visit our school and have face to face communication with our school management team and teaching body.

Meanwhile, applicants will have the chance to “step into the classroom and feel Concord atmosphere”. We will tailor the A-level courses for individual student and each student will be able to choose three lessons from among the seven subjects including Mathematics, English, Chinese, Computer Sciences, Physics, Chemistry and Art. Students will also have the chance to have face to face communication with the teachers.

Students can notify the Admission Department which taster sessions they hope to choose and we will try our best to satisfy the students’ interests. If you have the intention to apply for our school, then the high school students will also have tests and interviews on the school open day.
